Pastor’s Column

Greetings in Jesus’ Name Parish Family!

Upon reflecting on today’s Gospel taken from Luke 10:38-42, the story of Mary and Martha, friends of Jesus, hosting him at their home, we see Mary is content to sit at Jesus’ feet, while Martha is bustling about stressing out because she is doing all the work.

I do not know what your schedules are like or how long your to-do list is or how many people have expectations of you. If you are anything like me, I often find myself at the end of another day and wonder where all the hours went and how much I really accomplished. I love the fact that Martha wanted to take care of Jesus and serve Him and His friends. I’m sure her practical offerings and hospitality gave him many moments of respite in a very tiring schedule. But I want to learn what it looks like, today, to sit at Jesus’ feet. Our world is changing at such a rapid pace with a great degree of uncertainty. We don’t know what today or tomorrow will hold, but Jesus does.

Continued....

Christ's death and sacrifice bought us freedom from condemnation and promises peace and joy for our journey. I don't want my freedom to disintegrate into being free to run around doing things all the time; rather, I want to treasure my freedom to sit at His feet and learn. I want to sit at His feet and worship. I choose to sit at His feet and pour my life out as an offering to Him. May we develop a daily longing that says, "Lord, no matter how busy my life is today, I choose to sit at Your feet and worship You."

In Christ's Love, Father Anthony

Father Anthony would like to give a Special Thanks to everyone for the wonderful and delicious Breakfast and Brunch last Sunday, July 10!

Thank You!

Saludos en el nombre de Jesus,
Familia Parroquial,

En meditando en el Evangelio de hoy, tomado de San Lucas 10:38-42, la historia de Maria y Marta, amigas de Jesus, en su casa, vemos que Maria esta contenta solo a sentarse a los pies de Jesus, mientras que Marta esta estresandose haciendo todo el trabajo.

Yo no se el horario o la rutina diaria de ustedes. Yo no se cuantas cosas tienen que hacer o cuanta gente tiene esperanzas de ustedes. Si ustedes son como yo, a menudo, me encuentro al termino del dia y pienso en donde se fueron las horas y que verdaderamente he logrado ese dia. Me gusta que Marta querria atender a Jesus y servirle con sus amigos. Ciertamente sus ofertas de hospitalidad le dieron muchos momentos de descanso porque el horario de Jesus era muy pesado. Pero yo quiero aprender lo que es sentarme a los pies de Jesus. Nuestro mundo esta cambiando tan rapidamente con un gran grado de incertidumbre. No sabemos lo que hoy o manana traera, pero Jesus sabe.

La muerte y sacrificio de Cristo nos compro la liberacion de la condenacion y nos promete paz y gozo en este viaje. Yo no quiero que mi libertad se venga a disminuir hasta el punto que estoy corriendo a prisa para hacer todo. Yo quiero gozar de mi libertad de sentarme a Sus pies y aprender. Yo quiero sentarme a Sus pies y alabar. Yo eligo sentarme a Sus pies y darle mi vida totalmente como una ofrenda.

Que nuestra oracion sea hoy que siempre tengamos ese deseo que dice, "Senor, no importa que ocupada este mi vida hoy, yo eligo sentarme at Tus pies y alabarte!"

Con el Amor de Cristo,
Padre Anthony
